

Airing the political advertisement film called Stolen Honor without allowing time for a fair response is a violation of U.S. citizens' right to freedom of information that the FCC should be protecting. Please do your job!